

Armagh Show, Saturday 11th June 2011

A packed ringside were treated to a top notch entry in the Commercial classes at Armagh Show where judging was in the capable hands of Jim & Betty Stanley, Co Laois.

The Supreme Champion here was a truly outstanding Blonde D'Aquitaine heifer from Keith Williamson, Benburb making her first appearance on the show circuit. "Wee Honey" is a home bred heifer out of one of the herds best breeding cows mated with the highly successful Blonde bull "Kilmoney Bruce". Jim Stanley described his Champion as "a dream of a heifer with serious potential".

