

£11000 for British Blonde bull Shanvalley Fighter.

Savage Brothers and Son were set to take their two bulls Shanvalley Fighter and Fletcher across the water for the British Blonde Society sale on the 21st October.

Shanvalley Fighter who weighed 1008kgs at just 20 months had caught the eye of the McCabe Brothers at Balmarol show in May 2011; where he took Junior Male and Overall Junior champion as well as Reserve Male Champion.

Fighter continued with seven more male champions and an overall Blonde Champion and two Interbred Champions this summer.

A private sale was made to the McCabe Brothers from Downpatrick, County Down this week for a breed record of £11,000.

Jim and Maurice McCabe who run 115 suckler cows, mainly Limousin and Blue crosses have bred Blondes in the past said 'We are delighted to have purchased this young bull, he has got everything we have been looking for in a Blonde and more. What this bull has done since we first saw him in May is staggering, and we are glad to have kept this young bull here in Northern Ireland'.
