

Highland Show 2010

Newpark Dominique own and shown by fifteen year old Sean Kennedy from Ayrshire took the eye of Alison Watt from Keith, Banffshire who judged the British Blonde classes at the 2010 Highland Show. Dominique was awarded the supreme British Blonde championship, lifting the Brownhill Perpetual Challenge trophy for the homebred champion and the Paragon ET Trophy for the senior heifer. She was also awarded the Female Champion on the day.

Newpark Dominique

Alison Watt and Sean Kennedy

Dominique sired by Overton Amidale born 29.01.08 was shown by Sean Kennedy who has his own small herd of British Blonde cattle.

Reserve champion was awarded to Ramrig Dior daughter of Ardmore Upgrade born 14.12.08, shown by breeder George Hamilton from Berwickshire who went on to lift the Easterton Blondes Perpetual Trophy, Aberdeen and Northern Marts Perpetual Trophy for the intermediate heifer class and also the Neils trophy for the Junior Blonde champion.

Ramrig Dior

Alison Watt and George Hamilton

Ramrig Evening, junior stable mate to Dior was awarded the North of Scotland Blonde D'Aquitaine Club Trophy to the delight of breeder George Hamilton. Again this young heifer had been sired by Ardmore Upgrade which was bred by David Grant from Inch, Aberdeenshire.

Gala Anna shown by owner Billy Laird bred by J Frame sired by Brackenhill Pedro won the Scottish Blonde Club Cup for the Cow in calf or calf at foot class born between 01/01/04 and 24/03/06. Alan Walkers cow Bromley Valentine sired by Hackleton Phoenix bred by J&M Gibb from Northumberland was awarded the J&F Buchanan Trophy for the cow in calf or with calf at foot born before 31.12.03.

Alison Watt & Billy Laird

Alison Watt & Alan Walker

In the bull classes Brownhill Elvis won the Ashtonlodge Blondes Challenge Cup and the Semex Cup. Sired by Hallfield Albatross which was bred by P.Weightman and son from Co.Durham. Elvis was bred and shown by Tom and John Hope from Lanarkshire. The Brownhill herd went on to win the group of three animals from one exhibitor.

Alison Watt & John Hope

Tom Hope and Brownhill Elvis

Dalton Dolly with John Langhorn & Tamara

The Withybrook cup for the Senior bull class was awarded to Whitefield Conrad own and shown by Eric Mutch. Conrad was a homebred bull sired by Whitfield Volt out of Whitefield Tara born 28.10.2007.

Whitefield Blondes

Alison Watt & Eric Mutch

Whitefield Dixie