

Ivaniskey Eitsy Bitsy Crowned Beef Interbreed Champion of Champions

Livestock enthusiasts from all over Northern Ireland vied to win many cash prizes and silverware up for grabs at Lurgan show on Saturday 3RD June 2011. In the cattle section, Home bred heifer Ivaniskey Eitsy Bitsy exhibited by the McElroy Family from Dromara in Co.Down was awarded the Supreme Beef Interbreed championship. She is sired by Doncombe Aga Khan, the family's current stock bull whose semen is available from AI Services and out of a home bred cow Ivaniskey Ruthybaby. Both sire, dam and their progeny, have taken many breed and interbreed championships over the years. Eitsy Bitsy is in calf to Elite Blonde Sire Whistley Dollar and is due to calf next spring.

Noted Charolais breeder John Currie from Ballymena, judged this year's beef Interbreed championship at Lurgan "I picked the Blonde heifer because of her excellent size, tremendous length and good back end," he said. "I am very confident that she will grow into an excellent cow".
