

Yorkshire Show 2010

Judge. Mr Ben Garratt

An excellent representation of the British Blonde breed paraded for judge, Mr Ben Garrett at the Yorkshire show 2010.

Burghwallis Cadbury, Becky Seels and judge Ben Garrett

Burghwallis Cadbury won the British Blonde Championship as well as Champion Female on the day. Cadbury sired by Brownhill Unite exhibited by W&M Seels from Burgh Wallis Doncaster was out of Elmhirst Liquorice born April 2007.

A good day was had by Neil Barrett from Everingham York when his twenty month old heifer Everingham Duchess, (pictured below), born November 2008 sired by Arlequin was awarded numerous awards, Reserve Breed Champion as well as British Blonde Junior Champion and Reserve Female Champion.

Everingham Duchess

Heifer in calf or calf at foot class

Stable mate to Duchess was Doncombe Tanaina, an eight year old cow sired by Druk Lance won the in calf or with calf at foot class born on or before 31st December 2006. Neil Barrett also went on to win the group of three class.

Jessica Ellis and Ben Garrett

Criffel Braveheart sired by Whitefield Leader born September 2006 and exhibited by CR Fawcett from Sand Hutton won the Male Championship.

Criffel Braveheart

Whinberry Edwina bred and exhibited by TR Craven from Fangfoss, York sired by Paragon Ambassador born May 2009 won the Maiden heifer class who then joined her stable mate Whinberry Devina born January 2008 again sired by Paragon Ambassador to win the pairs class.

The North East Blonde Club ran a stand and presentation buffet where Becky Seels received the Champion British Blonde cup which was presented by Kate McNeil.

