

Blonde National Commercial Herd Competition

Mike Harrison from Shap, Penrith was the proud winner of the British Blonde National Commercial herd competition which was judged throughout the summer of 2011.

Mr Harrison runs 150 Blonde and Blue cross females which he runs with four blonde bulls was presented with the trophy prior to the British Blonde bull sale at Borderway mart in Carlisle by Mr P Rogers. Mr Rodgers who runs a commercial herd of his own in Presteigne has the difficult task of judging the final round of the competition.

Reserve champion was Mr David Morris from Aylesbury who runs 140 females with 6 bulls.

The Blonde society would like to thank and congratulate everyone who entered this year's competition and particular congratulations to each regional finalist who made the job of Mr Rogers such a difficult one.

Mr Rogers said he was delighted to have been asked to judge this prestigious competition and enjoyed the opportunity of viewing excellent Blonde commercial stock across the country travelling from Devon to Scotland across to Northern Ireland before heading back towards Wales.
